To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Montgomery, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations upon the Termination of the arduous and important Contest in which this County has so long been engaged, for the Preservation of its Religion, Liberty, and Constitution.

Permit us further to assure your Majesty, that, highly as we prize the Blessings of public Tranquillity, and anxiously as we wish for the Continuance of Peace, yet, should the Ambition of any Enemies induce them to encroach upon the just Rights or Independence of your Kingdom, we will be neither lulled by their Artifice, nor intimidated by their Power, from supporting your Majesty in repelling every Attack with the same Zeal, Energy, and Constancy which have been so eminently displayed by your Majesty's Subjects in the Course of the late just and necessary War.

Signed, by a Resolution of the Meeting,

Watkin Williams Wynne, Chairman.

Montgomeryshire, July 5, 1802.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Carnarvon, offer their sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

They have seen with great Anxiety the Progress of a War extending its baneful Influence over the fairest Portion of the Earth, and unequalled in its desolating Effects; in which, whilst the most powerful States of Europe have been borne down in the Torrent, Great Britain alone, under the Favour of Divine Providence, through the Vigour and Prudence of your Majesty's Councils, and the effective Bravery of your Forces by Sea and Land, has repelled the Attempts of her Enemies from without, and the Machinations of secret Treason and open Rebellion in her own Dominions.

Conspicuous in the Annals of Glory, this Nation presents to the World an Example of Energy undepressed by temporary Calamity, and of Moderation in the Hour of Triumph, which, at the same Time that it secures to her Sons their constitutional Liberty, invites the Four Quarters of the Globe to participate with her the Blessings and the Arts of Peace.

To your Majesty, in a peculiar Degree, belong the Gratulations of a beneficent Heart on the Prospects now opened to our View. Your faithful and loyal Subjects thus contemplate in the Happiness of their Sovereign, the Cause and the Fruit of their own Prosperity and Peace.

Rob. Currie and Rich. Griffiths, Bailiffs.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

THE High Sheriff, Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others, Inhabitants of the County of Carnarvon, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with their sincere and ardent Congratulations on the Event of a general Peace.

The Circumstances which have attended a desolating and widely-extended War, afflicting in its Progress, and painful on Retrospection, have yet afforded to your Majesty's faithful Subjects the consolatory View of a great Nation firmly resisting the revolutionary Storm; and finally, under Favour of Providence, reposing in Security and Peace.

With those Blessings, the Fruit of wise and vigorous Councils, happily directed to that End, aided by the active Bravery of your Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life and happy Reign, we associate the Permanence of our invaluable Constitution, and the commercial Prosperity of these Realms.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of Dunbar, deeply impressed with Sentiments of Veneration and steady Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, crave Permission to approach the Throne with our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity to your Majesty's Dominions.

While, on the one Hand, we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight the Spirit and Determination which uniformly animated your Majesty's Councils, and which were so successfully aided by the unprecedented Exertions of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies during the late arduous Contest in which we were engaged, so on the other, we cannot refrain from laying at your Majesty's Feet our humble Sense of the Firmness, Moderation, and Wisdom of those Measures which, through the Blessing of God and your Majesty's paternal Goodness, have led to a Restoration of Peace.

That the same Providence which has hitherto been your Preserver may continue to give to your Majesty a long and happy Reign, and may secure to your Majesty the Possession of the Confidence and Affection of a virtuous and loyal People, is the most earnest and humble Prayer of your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Dunbar.

At Dunbar this Fourth of July One thousand eight hundred and two.

Cbr. Middlemass, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of your Royal Burgh of North Berwick, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our most sincere and cordial Congratulations on the Return of public Tranquillity.

We rejoice that the arduous Contest in which this Country has been engaged in Defence of our Religion, our Laws and Independence, has been, by the Blessing of God, brought to a Conclusion; and we contemplate with Gratitude and Delight, that intrepid Bravery which has, on every Occasion, so eminently distinguished your Majesty's Fleets and Armies.

We assure your Majesty, that, whatever Exertions or Sacrifices we have been called to make during the War, we are ready to renew them with the same Spirit, should the Dignity and Honor of your Majesty, and the Security of the Empire, call for such an Exertion.

We trust, however, that such an Event is far distant; and we pray that your Majesty's Reign may be long and peaceful, and that our Constitution, which is at once the Wonder, Terror, and Delight of distant Nations, may continue to bless our Children's Children.

Signed in Name and by Authority of the Council, this Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two Years.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Deputy Consul General and Factory of Lisbon, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our most cordial Congratulations on the happy Event of a general Peace.

Residing, as we do, at a Distance from the Seat of your Majesty's Government, we do not the less feel its benign Influence; and the Solicitude which was expressed by your Majesty's Ministers, at a recent Period of Alarm, for the Security of our Property, with the judicious Measures suggested and pursued by them for its Preservation, have impressed us with Sentiments of the most lively Gratitude. Our Hearts are still in our native Country; and our Inclinations, therefore, not less than our Duty, impelling us to take the deepest Interest in every Circumstance that can contribute to its Prosperity and Happiness. We trust, that it will not be deemed presumptuous in us to say, that we yield to none of our fellow Subjects in Sentiments of Respectful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, and of Veneration for your Royal Authority.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Blessings of Peace, that your valuable Life may be very long preferred for the Benefit of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, and that the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland may continue to flourish with Increase of Dignity, Wealth, and Power, is our daily and fervent Prayer.

At the Request of the British Factory,

CAERMARTHEN SUMMER CIRCUIT.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

HIS Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Falster, called Giesler-

Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lowenörn, Adjutant-General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Pilots, the Public is hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giedser-Odde, at about one-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to surround it with a Lanthorn or Glass Case according to the latest Invention, of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Black Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trinkelen, situated by the Compass at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giedser-Odde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with regard to the Trindelen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trinkelen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) she is in a right Line with the Trindelen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when sailing from the East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindelen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Giedser-Odde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, and Common-Council of the City of Cork, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most humble and heartfelt Congratulations on the Return of Peace; and to express our most unfeigned Gratitude for the Moderation with which your Majesty seized upon the earliest Opportunity (though in the Career of Victory,) to restore the Blessings of Tranquillity to your united People.

We look back with Pride and Admiration at the Firmness and Decision with which your Majesty stood forward, as the Champion of civilized Society, of Order, and of Humanity; at the Energy and Perseverance with which your Majesty supported a Contest of the most unexampled Difficulties; and at the unparalleled Achievements of your Majesty's Arms by Sea and by Land.

To these (under Divine Providence) are we now to attribute the Preservation of our venerated Constitution; to these are we indebted for the proud Situation which your Majesty's United Kingdom at this Moment holds in the Scale of Europe; may that Providence grant your Majesty a long and tranquil Enjoyment of those Blessings, which your Majesty has been solicitous to procure for your People, and inspire them with Gratitude, for the Happiness they experience under a mild, exemplary and virtuous Sovereign.

Done at the Council Chamber in the City of Cork, this Twenty-ninth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and two.

M. Westropp, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders composing the General Synod of Ulster, embrace with Pleasure the Opportunity offered us, by our Annual Meeting, of declaring our Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We entreat Permission to offer to your Majesty our warm and respectful Congratulations on the happy Re-establishment of Peace, accomplished since our last Meeting, under Divine Providence, by the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall continue to inculcate on the People under our Care those Principles of Religion, Order, and good Morals, which are alike conducive to their eternal Happiness, and to the Tranquillity of Society: nor shall we cease to offer up our Prayers to Almighty God for the Peace and Welfare of the Empire, and that your Majesty's Reign over it may be long and prosperous.

Signed in our Name, and by our Order, at Cookstown, this Third Day of July, One thousand eight hundred and two.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

HIS Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Falster, called Giedser-Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lowenborn, Adjutant General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Ports, the Public is hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giedser-Odde, at about one-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to furround it with a Lanthorn or Glafs Case according to the latest Invention, of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Black Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trindlen, situated by the Compass at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giedfer-Olde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with Regard to the Trindlen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trindlen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) the is in a right Line with the Trindlen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen inflated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when failing from the East, and the Barrel is seen inflated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindlen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Chidder-Olde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

Copy of a Letter from Captain Sir Home Popham, to Sir Evan Nepean, Bart. dated at Calcutta, the 18th of November 1801.

SIR,

I HAVE much Pleasure in transmitting you a Copy of Captain Collier's Letter of the 10th September, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, giving a very detailed Account of his sinking the French National Ship La Fleche of Twenty-two Guns, and One Hundred and Seventy Men.

The Result of Captain Collier's unremitting Perseverance under every trying Circumstance, and his determined Conduct in warping the Victor into Mahé Harbour, is likely to be of very material Service to the Commerce of India, as La Fleche was unquestionably intended to cruise in the Bay of Bengal.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

HOME POPHAM.

His Majesty's Sloop Victor, Mahé Roads, September 19, 1801.

SIR,

THE State of the Crew of His Majesty's Sloop under my Command, after leaving the Red Sea, induced me to put into the Island Diego Garcia: after procuring a large Supply of Turtle and good Water, I left that Harbour on the 27th of August, and proceeded on the Execution of the particular Service pointed out in your Orders of the 22d July; and on the 2d Instant, in Sight of these Islands, His Majesty's Sloop fell in with a French National Corvette, and after a few ineffectual Manœuvres on her Part, from the superior sailing of the Victor, when going large, I had the Pleasure of bringing her to a close Action at Three Quarters past Five P. M.; the disguised State of the Victor did not long deceive the Enemy, the Second Broadside proved sufficient, the Corvette hauling her Wind and endeavouring to escape, which, in about Twenty Minutes, I was sorry to observe, by having almost solely directed her Fire at our Masts and Sticks she had a fair Prospect of effecting, for, on her tacking under our Lee, I endeavoured to wear, with the Hope of boarding on her Bow, when I had the Mortification to find both Lower and Topmast

Braces shot away on the Starboard Side, as well as Preventer ones and Bow Lines, and before others could be rose the Corvette was Half a Mile to Windward; Night fast approaching added to the Chagrin I felt on observing the Corvette sail better than the Victor on a Wind; the Chace continued all Night, frequently within Gun-Shot, and at Sunset the following Day, from the Wind having favoured the Enemy, she was Four or Five Miles to Windward; in the Night of the 4th lost Sight of the Chace, when, probably by tacking, she escaped.

In this Affair I had one Man wounded with Two Mullet Balls, and Mr. Middleton, Master's-Mate, slightly; the Damage sustained in the Hull trifling, the Foremast shot through, and I have to regret our Sails and Rigging much cut.

Judging from the Course the Corvette was steering, when first seen, she must be bound to these Islands, I pushed for them, and towards Sunset of the 5th, she was again seen running in for this Anchorage; I kept under easy Sail till dark, when the Victor was anchored; at Daylight I had the Satisfaction of seeing the Corvette moored with Springs in the Basin or Inner Harbour with a Red Flag at the Fore (which, as I since learn, was in Defiance); being unacquainted with the Channel, and having no Pilot, Mr. Crawford, the Master, (though ill of a Fever,) and Mr. Middleton being Volunteers, were sent to sound, which Service they completely performed; nor did the latter Gentleman desist, till repeatedly fired at by a Boat from the Corvette.

The extreme Narrowness of the Channel, added to the Wind not being very favourable, compelled me to use Warps and the Stay-falls only, which exposed the Ship to a raking Fire for some Minutes, till, shoaling our Water, I was obliged to bring up. Having Two Springs on the Cable our Broadside was soon brought to bear; and at Three Quarters past Eleven A. M. a well directed Fire was opened, which was kept up incessantly from both Vessels till Twenty Minutes past Two, when I plainly perceived the Enemy was going down; in a few Minutes her Cable was cut, she cast round, and her Bow grounded on a Coral Reef.

Mr. McLean, the First Lieutenant, with a Part of Officers and Men, were sent to board; though scarce had they put off, ere we discovered the Enemy to be on Fire: Lieutenant Ash and other Officers were then sent with proper Assistance, but just as they had succeeded in extinguishing the Fire she fell on her Larboard Bilge into deeper Water and sunk.

She proves to have been the French National Corvette La Fleche, mounting Twenty long French Eight-Pounders, answering to English Nines, with Two Stern Chasers, though it appears all her Guns were not mounted in the first Action; was larger than the Victor in Dimensions, perfectly New, a remarkable fast Sailer, and not Four Months from France, commanded by Captain Bonamy, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, with Four Lieutenants, and a Complement of One Hundred and Forty five Men, some of whom had been left sick at Bourbon.

From a Number of dead and dying Men reported to be found on her Forecastle, as well as Two alongside, I am induced to believe the Carnage was great, though only Four are acknowledged by the French Captain.

She had Twenty Men to assist at her Guns, forming a Part of the Crew of the French Frigate La Clifonne, captured here a few Days since by His Majesty's Ship La Sybille, Captain Adam.

The obstinate Defence made by La Fleche was on the Supposition of the Victor being a Privateer.

From the Length of Time elapsed ere this Business was brought to a close, I have felt it necessary to be thus particular in my Detail, and I trust for your Excuse should I dwell longer, as I feel I should do an Injustice to every Officer and Man on board, did I neglect paying a just Tribute to the cool and determined Bravery they evinced; even Men labouring under a lingering Fever (of which I had unfortunately Thirty) felt a proportionate Zeal.

I beg Leave to recommend to your Notice Lieutenant McLean, as well as solicit your Interest for the Confirmation of my Second, Mr. Smith, as also Mr. Hyde, Gunner, observing, that whenever Mr. Middleton or Mr. Graves, (both having passed for Lieutenants,) shall obtain the Rank, they will do equal Credit to your Patronage.

In this Action I most fortunately had not a Man either killed or wounded; our Hull, Rigging, and Boats have suffered much, besides having some Shot between Wind and Water.

I am, GEORGE R. COLLIER.

Majesty's Ship Romey, &c. &c. &c.

THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Rutland, beg Leave to approach the Throne to express to your Majesty with how much Satisfaction we have seen the Period arrive in which the paternal Care of your Majesty could safely be exercised in giving to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace.

That this favourable Result of your Majesty's wife and temperate Measures, under Circumstances of unexampled Difficulty and Danger, must, if possible, even encrease our Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, since we have hereby the strongest additional Proof of your Majesty's Solitude to defend, and further to establish in your Dominions the Principles of our free and most happy Constitution.

That, under such Impressions, we have not failed in common with the Rest of your Majesty's Subjects, in making the Exertions, and bearing cheerfully the Burthens incidental to the severe Conflict in which we were involved; and we beg to assure your Majesty that our Zeal in the Support of your Majesty and the House of Brunswick is animated as much as our Confidence is gratified by the Conduct and present Termination of the War, in which, until now, we have been unavoidably engaged.

That we are persuaded that nothing will be wanting on the Part of your Majesty's Government to harmonize and consolidate the pacific Dispositions of Europe, and we therefore look forward to the future without Anxiety, trusting that the Nation will either enjoy permanent Tranquillity, or be called forth to renewed Hostilities, under all the Advantages which an Union of Sentiment in a just Cause must necessarily produce

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

THE Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Falster, called Giesler-Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lowenörn, Adjutant-General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Pilots, the Public it hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giesler-Odde, at about One-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to furnish it with a Lantern or Glass Case according to the latest Invention of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Black Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trindelen, situated by the Compaas at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giesler-Odde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with Regard to the Trindelen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trindelen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) she is in a right Line with the Trindelen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when sailing from the East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindelen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Giesler-Odde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

[Here follow the Signatures.]

St. James's, July 21, 1802.

THE following Address having been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Ayr.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, convened for the Purpose by special Advertisement, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our Congratulations on having attained the Blessings of Peace. We acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Goodness and Wisdom, in having put a Period to a long and eventful War; a War however, which, while it lasted, carried the Naval and Military Glory of this Country to a Pitch almost unrivalled, and that in Climates hitherto unknown to the Range of British Arms. We hope that the Attainment of these Blessings will not lull us into a treacherous Security, but what we have obtained by our Moderation, by our Vigilance we shall preserve. That the Blessings we have been enabled to attain, Providence will render permanent. That we shall now cultivate the Arts of Peace with as much Assiduity as we shewed Fortitude in sustaining the Toils of War. That Harmony and Union may prevail in your Kingdom, and Prosperity within your Palace. And we pray that Providence may long preserve a Life endeared to the Nation by every Virtue, that it may twicken it with every Comfort, and that neither foreign Wars, nor political Commotions, nor domestic Tumults may disturb the Remainder of your Reign.

Signed by our Prefes, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Ayr, the 6th July 1802.

Custom-House, London, July 24, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Saturday the 19th Instant, about Half-past Two o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. Archibald Weatherston, Cogill Waiter, in the Service of the Customs, or Baillie, within the Port of Berwick, being out upon Duty, and attempting to examine a Cart which he met upon the Road leading from Sunderland to the Wisp, was at a Place called Newham-How-Ways, most barbarously and inhumanly beaten by Three Men, one of whom was on Horseback, and the other Two in the Cart, who seized him and knocked him down with Bludgeons, and afterwards tied his Hands behind his Back, and his Legs together, and then left him bleeding, and almost senseless in consequence of the Wounds which he had received. From the Conversation which passed between them there is Reason to believe that the said Three Men were Smugglers belonging to Boomer, and one of them said, in Answer to the Complaints of the said Archibald Weatherston, that he had himself been worse used by an Excise Officer;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

Description of the Smugglers.

One of the said Men was stout made, about Five Feet Seven or Eight Inches high, had on a Drab Jacket, round Faced, and spoke the Scotch Language quick, and apparently about Thirty Years of Age; another of the said Men was rather slender made, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, had on a Brown Coat, thin faced, Black Complexion, and rather ruddy, and between Forty and Fifty Years of age; the Third cannot be accurately described.

THE following Addresses having been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Derby.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Derby, assembled at a public Meeting of the said County, beg Leave, to approach your Throne with lively Sentiments of Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Restoration of Peace.

With great Admiration and Gratitude, and with a just National Pride, we have witnessed during the late arduous and eventful Contest, the unexampled Heroism and Valour displayed in your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and the steady and genuine Fortitude and Patriotism manifested by all Ranks of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, whereby, under the Auspices of Divine Providence, the Honor and Independence of the Kingdom have been maintained; its Religion, Laws, and Liberties preserved; the baneful Principles of Anarchy successfully refuted, and your Majesty's faithful Subjects restored to the Blessings of Peace.

Earnestly do we pray, that such Blessings may be continued to us, and that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of a loyal and united People.

Signed in the Name of the Meeting, by

[Presented by Thomas Prinsep, Esq; High Sheriff.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council, Deemsters, and Keys, of your Majesty's Island of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, ever impressed with Sentiments of warmest Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government, beg Leave humbly to approach your Throne, with our most sincere Congratulations on the Establishment of public Peace.

Whilst with honest Pride and grateful Pleasure, we look back to, we venerate and admire the uniform Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils, and the unexampled Valour and Achievements of your Fleets and Armies, during the late most arduous Contest; these, supported by the firm Patriotism and undaunted Spirit of a free, a loyal, and united People, have, under God, preserved to us, all the Blessings of our happy Constitution, in Church and State inviolate; have established the Character of the Nation on the solid Basis of true Glory, firm undeviating Honor, persevering Fortitude, and determined Courage, and are the best Security for the Duration of that Peace which the united Efforts of Wisdom and of Valour have so honourably accomplished.

With heartfelt Gratitude, we desire to unite with the Rest of our Fellow Subjects, in Prayers to the God of all Mercies, that the Blessings of Peace, may be long continued to us, and that your Majesty may long live the Father of a loyal, happy, and united People.

Representing, as we do, the Commercial and Manufacturing Interests of this Part of the United Kingdom, we take a warm Concern in an Event, which, amidst the Wreck of Nations, has not only preserved entire your Majesty's Dominions and our glorious Constitution, but which, we trust, will enable us to make the most beneficial Use of those Resources, which the Wisdom and Vigour of your Majesty's Councils have carried unimpaired through the Calamities of War.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Blessings which you have procured for us, and see your People flourishing in Arts and Commerce, as they have done in Arms, is our sincere and earnest Prayer.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

HIS Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Fallier, called Giedser-Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lowenörn, Adjutant-General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Pilots, the Public is hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giedser-Odde, at about One-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to surround it with a Lanthorn or Glass Case according to the latest Invention, of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Black Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trindelen, situated by the Compass at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giedjer-Odde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with Regard to the Trindelen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trindelen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) she is in a right Line with the Trindelen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when sailing from the East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindelen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Giedjer-Odde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordonance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

Custom-House, London, July 24, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Saturday the 19th Instant, about Half-past Two o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. Archibald Weatherston, Coast Waiter, in the Service of the Customs, at Budle, within the Port of Berwick, being out upon Duty, and attempting to examine a Cart which he met upon the Road leading from Sunderland to the Wjbe, was at a Place called Newham-Hew-Ways, most barbarously and inhumanly beaten by Three Men, one of whom was on Horseback, and the other Two in the Cart, who seized him and knocked him down with Bludgeons, and afterwards tied his Hands behind his Back, and his Legs together, and then left him bleeding, and almost senseless in consequence of the Wounds which he had received. From the Conversation which passed between them there is Reason to believe that the said Three Men were Smugglers belonging to Boomer, and one of them said, in Answer to the Complaints of the said Archibald Weatherston, that he had himself been worse used by an Excise Officer;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners, J. Hume.

Description of the Smugglers.

One of the said Men was stout made, about Five Feet Seven or Eight Inches high, had on a Drob Jacket, round Faced, and spoke the Scotch Language quick, and apparently about Thirty Years of Age; another of the said Men was rather slender made, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, had on a Brown Coat, thin faced, Black Complexion, and rather ruddy, and between Forty and Fifty Years of age; the Third cannot be accurately described.

Navy Office, July 23, 1802.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Royal Council of Customs, and of the Indies, Copenhagen, June 3, 1802.

THIS Danish Majesty having ordered, for the Guidance of Persons navigating in the Baltic, that a Light-House should be erected upon the extreme Southern Point of Falster, called Giesjer-Odde, and, after having previously consulted with M. Lovénér, Adjutant-General of the Royal Marine and Chief of the Pilots, the Public is hereby made acquainted, That a Light-House has been constructed upon the said Giesjer-Odde, at about One-eighth of a Mile from the most extreme Point of Land, and although the Light is entirely produced by a Coal Fire, yet Care has been taken to surround it with a Lanthorn or Glass Case according to the latest Invention, of Fourteen Feet Diameter, so that, be the Weather what it may, a constant Flame will arise therefrom, and the Light be augmented thereby, because all that Part of the Case which is towards the Land, and which cannot be seen at Sea, is lined with a Plating of polished Black Tin.

In order that the dangerous Flat called Trindelen, situated by the Compass at about Three Quarters of a Mile S. E. One Quarter S. without the Giesjer-Odde may the more readily be observed by Navigators during the Day, a Pillar with a Barrel on the Top of it, painted black, has been erected on a rising Ground near the Sea, and which is placed, as with Regard to the Trindelen, in the same Point of View as the Light-House, which is painted White:—So that when under Sail, the Black Barrel is seen in the same Point of View as the White Light-House, (which may very easily be distinguished from the Trindelen in gloomy Weather, and even at a Distance of Half a Mile without that Flat, according to the greater or less Elevation of the Vessel at Sea,) the is in a right Line with the Trindelen. In such Case a Vessel must keep at the Distance of a Mile from the Coast in order to avoid the said Flat, it being impossible to take Soundings. When the Course is from West to East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Western Side of the Light-House the Vessel is quite clear of the Flat, and vice versa, when sailing from the East, and the Barrel is seen insulated and free on the Eastern Side of the Light-House.

As to Ships not being of great Burthen there is a Passage between the Trindelen and Shore; but this Passage must be extremely well known, or a Pilot should be taken, who will come out from Giesjer-Odde upon Signal being made.

This Light-House will be opened on the 1st of August 1802, from which Day the Regulations contained in the Ordinance of the 21st March 1705, and in the Placard of the 1st February 1779, will be adopted; so that it will be kept burning in Summer, or from Easter Day to Michaelmas Day, from an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise; and in Winter, or from Michaelmas Day to Easter Day, from Half an Hour after Sunset to Sunrise.

Custom-House, London, July 24, 1802.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Saturday the 19th Instant, about Half-past Two o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. Archibald Weatherston, Coast Wailer, in the Service of the Customs, at Bude, within the Port of Berwick, being out upon Duty, and attempting to examine a Cart which he met upon the Road leading from Sunderland to the Wids, was at a Place called Newbam-Hozo-Ways, most barbarously and inhumanly beaten by Three Men, one of whom was on Horseback, and the other Two in the Cart, who fired him and knocked him down with Bludgeons, and afterwards tied his Hands behind his Back, and his Legs together, and then left him bleeding, and almost senseless in consequence of the Wounds which he had received. From the Conversation which passed between them there is Reason to believe that the said Three Men were Smugglers belonging to Dover, and one of them said, in Answer to the Complaints of the said Archibald Weatherston, that he had himself been worse used by an Excise Officer;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. Hume.

Description of the Smugglers.

One of the said Men was stout make, about Five Feet Seven or Eight Inches high, had on a Drab Jacket, round faced, and spoke the Scotch Language quiet, and apparently about Thirty Years of Age; another of the said Men was rather slender make, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, had on a Brown Coat, thin faced, Black Complexion, and rather ruddy, and between Forty and Fifty Years of age; the Third cannot be accurately described.

Whitchall, July 31, 1802.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Number of Persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled, did, about One o'Clock on Thursday Morning the 22d Instant, feloniously break into and enter a Pulling and Machize Mill, called Littleton-Mill, situate in the Tything of Littleton, in the Parish of Steple Aston, in the County of Wilts, belonging to Mr. Francis Nash, of Trowbridge, in the said County, Clothier, in the Occupation of Mr. Ralph Houth, and after breaking open and entering the said Mill, did riotously, maliciously, and wilfully set Fire to the same, by which the whole Building, with the Pulling-Stocks, Water-Wheels, and Apparatus thereto belonging, and also the Machines and Stock in Trade therein, to a very considerable Amount, were totally destroyed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any One of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Francis Nash to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

Custom-House, London, July 24, 1802.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Saturday the 19th Instant, about Half-past Two o'Clock in the Morning, Mr. Archibald Weatherston, Coast Waster, in the Service of the Customs, at Budle, within the Port of Berwick, being out upon Duty, and attempting to examine a Cart which he met upon the Road leading from Sunderland to the Wigh, was at a Place called Newham-How-Ways, most barbarously and inhumanly beaten by Three Men, one of whom was on Horseback, and the other Two in the Cart, who seized him and knocked him down with Bludgeons, and afterwards tied his Hands behind his Back, and his Legs together, and then left him bleeding, and almost senseless in consequence of the Wounds which he had received. From the Conversation which passed between them there is Reason to believe that the said Three Men were Smugglers belonging to Booter, and one of them said, in Answer to the Complaints of the said Archibald Weatherston, that he had himself been worse used by an Excise Officer;

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of the said Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that any One or more of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause and procure to be discovered and apprehended, any One or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,

J. Hume.

Description of the Smugglers.

One of the said Men was stout made, about Five Feet Seven or Eight Inches high, had on a Drab Jacket, round Faced, and spoke the Scotch Language quick, and apparently about Thirty Years of Age; another of the said Men was rather slender made, about Five Feet Eight Inches high, had on a Brown Coat, thin faced, Black Complexion, and rather ruddy, and between Forty and Fifty Years of age; the Third cannot be accurately described.

Whitehall, July 31, 1802.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a Number of Persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled, did, about One o'Clock on Thursday Morning the 22d Instant, feloniously break into and enter a Fulling and Machine Mill, called Littleton-Mill, situate in the Tything of Littleton, in the Parish of Steeple Aston, in the County of Wilts, belonging to Mr. Francis Naisb, of Troubridge, in the said County, Clothier, in the Occupation of Mr. Ralph Heath, and after breaking open and entering the said Mill, did riotously, maliciously, and wilfully set Fire to the same, by which the whole Building, with the Fulling-Stocks, Water-Wheels, and Apparatus thereto belonging, and also the Machines and Stock in Trade therein, to a very considerable Amount, were totally destroyed.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon, to any One of them who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Francis Naisb to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

A DISPATCH has been received from Alexander Straton, Esq; His Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at the Ottoman Porte, transmitting an Official Note delivered to him by the Reis Effendi, on the 29th of July last, relative to the Navigation of the Black Sea, of which the following is a Copy:

TRANSLATION.

Official Note delivered by the Reis Effendi to Alexander Straton, Esq; at a Conference in His Excellency's House on the Canal, the 29th July 1802.

IT behoves the Character of true Friendship and sincere Regard to promote with Cheerfulness all such Affairs and Objects as may be reciprocally useful, and may have a Rank among the salutary Fruits of those steady Bonds of Alliance and perfect good Harmony which happily subsist between the Sublime Porte and the Court of Great Britain; and as Permission has heretofore been granted for the English Merchant Ships to navigate in the Black Sea for the Purposes of Trade, the same having been a voluntary Trait of His Imperial Majesty's own gracious Heart, as more amply appears by an official Note presented to our Friend the English Minister residing at the Sublime Porte, dated 3 Gemaziel Ahir 1214—this present "Takrir" (Official Note) is issued; the Imperial Ottoman Court, hereby engaging that the same Treatment shall be observed towards the English Merchant Ships coming to that Sea, as is offered to the Ships of Powers most favoured by the Sublime Porte, on the Score of that Navigation.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the smell of the sea. It was a salty, fresh, and slightly pungent odor that filled the air. I had heard that the ocean was beautiful, but I didn't realize how much it would affect me. The smell was everywhere, from the beach to the cliffs, and it made me feel like I was part of something bigger than myself.

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes,) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty four, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes may, either by Accident or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who by Colour of such Passes may carry on their Trade; We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Government, on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That the Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force for all Vessels sailing from the Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the present Year, in order to give sufficient Time to Our Trade to be furnished with Passes of the New Form; and that after the Expiration of that Time, no Passes but those of the New Form shall be considered as valid, except in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes: And we do hereby further declare, That in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force during the Terms hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) For Vessels returning from the Ports to the Northward of the Straights of Gibraltar, or from the Ports within the Mediterranean, in the West Indies, or in North America, to the Thirty-first of March next; For Vessels returning from the Western Coasts of Africa, to the Thirtieth of June next; For Vessels returning from the East Indies, and all other distant Parts, to the Thirtieth of June One thousand eight hundred and four; and for Vessels which may sail from the Ports of Our United Kingdom previous to the Thirty-first of December next, for a further Time of Two Months beyond the Periods above-mentioned, according to their respective Voyages: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, on or before the Expiration of the Periods hereinbefore mentioned respectively return the same into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out-Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors or Commanders of Our Forts, Plantations or Colonies, or to their being respectively directed, that they do themselves with Passes of the New Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Treaties subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council, on the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remain unaltered by the Regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council, bearing Date respectively on the Twenty-eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and according to the further Regulations then there made, and Our Instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, touching the same: And whereas many Ships and Vessels belonging to Our loving Subjects, continue several Years trading from Port to Port in the Mediterranean, without returning Home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their Passes to be exchanged; We do hereby, for the Ease of Our Trading Subjects, publish and declare Our Pleasure, That upon the Application of any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other substantial Merchant, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and Oath made by him of the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and that Three-fourths of the Company are Our Subjects, according to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for encouraging " and increasing of Shipping and Navigation," or such other Proportion as may be authorized by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a Bond for the Return of such Pass at the End of Three Years, or of the Voyage, if that shall sooner determine, it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a New Pass for such Ship or Vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said Owner or Merchant shall desire, with Direction to such Consul, that, upon Application to him from the Master of the Ship, for which the Pass is made out, and surrendering up his Old Pass, and entering into Bond for the Return of such New Pass, he shall deliver out the said New Pass to such Master, and transmit the Old one, with the Bond, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any Abuses that may be attempted by Foreigners relating to the New Passes to be issued as aforesaid; We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That all such New Passes, to be hereafter issued for any Ships and Vessels whatsoever, belonging to any of Our Subjects, inhabiting the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, shall be made out in a peculiar Form, different from the Form of the New Passes, to be issued for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions; and that such New Passes shall be lodged with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and issued out only by him, according to the Regulations made by Our said Royal Predecessor King George the First, and Ourselves in Council, as aforesaid: And the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, is hereby charged and required, not to issue or deliver out any such Passes to any Persons whatsoever, other than such as are really Our Subjects, inhabiting in the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and strictly to conform themselves to the Regulations and Instructions made and given as aforesaid: But in regard it sometimes happens, that Ships, belonging to Our Subjects of other Parts of Our Dominions, call in at Gibraltar without Passes, and have Occasion to be furnished therewith; We do, for the further Convenience of Trade, hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively hereby empowered, to lodge Mediterranean Passes, of the same Form with the New Passes, for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions, in the Hands of Our Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, with Directions to him to issue and deliver out such Passes to any of Our Subjects, not being Inhabitants of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar; provided the Person or Persons applying for the same, do comply with and conform to the several Rules and Regulations now in Use, and required to be observed by such of Our other Subjects: And We do hereby order, That the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain, and the Commissioners of Our Revenue in Ireland, do cause to be carried into Execution such Parts of the said Order of Council of the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning Passes, as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in Force, and of Our Orders aforesaid, made in Council, on the Twenty-eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and that they do direct their Officers in the several Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to demand of the Masters of all Merchant Ships, so soon as they shall return into Port from a Foreign Voyage, all Passes granted as aforesaid, which shall be in their Possession, to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older Date than the Periods hereinbefore severally and respectively mentioned for the Return of the Passes of the present Form, then such Passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such Passes, according to the true Intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the Name of every such Master, and of the Ship or Vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, to the End that Directions may be given for putting the Bond, entered into on the granting any such Pass, in Suit: And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our Islands, Colonies, or Plantations, Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, are hereby respectively required and commanded to yield due Obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the Orders, Instructions, Regulations, and Directions before mentioned, on Pain of Our High Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and two, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes,) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes may, either by Accident or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who by Colour of such Passes may carry on their Trade; We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That the Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force for all Vessels sailing from the Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the present Year, in order to give sufficient Time to Our Trade to be furnished with Passes of the New Form; and that after the Expiration of that Time, no Passes but those of the New Form shall be considered as valid, except in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes: And we do hereby further declare, That in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force during the Terms hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) For Vessels returning from the Ports to the Northward of the Straights of Gibraltar, or from the Ports within the Mediterranean, in the West Indies, or in North America, to the Thirty-first of March next; For Vessels returning from the Western Coasts of Africa, to the Thirtieth of June next; For Vessels returning from the East Indies, and all other distant Parts, to the Thirtieth of June One thousand eight hundred and four; and for Vessels which may sail from the Ports of Our United Kingdom previous to the Thirty-first of December next, for a further Time of Two Months beyond the Periods above-mentioned, according to their respective Voyages: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, on or before the Expiration of the Periods hereinbefore mentioned respectively return the same into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out-Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our Foreign Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of the New Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Terms subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Predecessor King George the Third, by Order in His Privy Council, on the Thirteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remain in force: And by the Regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council, bearing Date respectively on the Twenty-

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruizers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes,) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes may, either by Accident or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who by Colour of such Passes may carry on their Trade: We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That the Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force for all Vessels sailing from the Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the present Year, in order to give sufficient Time to Our Trade to be furnished with Passes of the New Form; and that after the Expiration of that Time, no Passes but those of the New Form shall be considered as valid, except in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes: And we do hereby further declare, That in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force during the Terms hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) For Vessels returning from the Ports to the Northward of the Straights of Gibraltar, or from the Ports within the Mediterranean, in the West Indies, or in North America, to the Thirty-first of March next; For Vessels returning from the Western Coasts of Africa, to the Thirtieth of June next: For Vessels returning from the East Indies, and all other distant Parts, to the Thirtieth of June One thousand eight hundred and four; and for Vessels which may sail from the Ports of Our United Kingdom previous to the Thirty-first of December next, for a further Time of Two Months beyond the Periods above-mentioned, according to their respective Voyages: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, on or before the Expiration of the Periods hereinbefore mentioned respectively return the same into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out-Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our Foreign Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of the New Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Terms subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Prefectorial King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council, on the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same may be altered by the Regulations made by Us, by Our Orders in Council, bearing Date respectively, the Twentieth eighteenth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and according to the further Regulations then there made, and Our Instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, touching the same; And whereas many Ships and Vessels belonging to Our loving Subjects, continue several Years trading from Port to Port in the Mediterranean, without returning Home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their Passes to be exchanged: We do hereby, for the Ease of Our Trading Subjects, publish and declare Our Pleasure, That upon the Application of any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other substantial Merchant, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and Oath made by him of the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and that Three-fourths of the Company are Our Subjects, according to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for encouraging "and increasing of Shipping and Navigation," or such other Proportion as may be authorized by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a Bond for the Return of such Pass at the End of Three Years, or of the Voyage, if that shall sooner determine, it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a New Pass for such Ship or Vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said Owner or Merchant shall desire, with Direction to such Consul, that, upon Application to him from the Master of the Ship, for which the Pass is made out, and surrendering up his Old Pass, and entering into Bond for the Return of such New Pass, he shall deliver out the said New Pass to such Master, and transmit the Old one, with the Bond, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any Abuses that may be attempted by Foreigners relating to the New Passes to be issued as aforesaid; We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That all such New Passes, to be hereafter issued for any Ships and Vessels whatsoever, belonging to any of Our Subjects, inhabiting the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, shall be made out in a peculiar Form, different from the Form of the New Passes, to be issued for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions; and that such New Passes shall be lodged with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and issued out only by him, according to the Regulations made by Our said Royal Predecessor King George the First, and Ourself in Council, as aforesaid: And the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, is hereby charged and required, not to issue or deliver out any such Passes to any Persons whatsoever, other than such as are really Our Subjects, inhabiting in the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and strictly to conform themselves to the Regulations and Instructions made and given as aforesaid: But in regard it sometimes happens, that Ships, belonging to Our Subjects of other Parts of Our Dominions, call in at Gibraltar without Passes, and have Occasion to be furnished therewith; We do, for the further Convenience of Trade, hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively hereby empowered, to lodge Mediterranean Passes, of the same Form with the New Passes, for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions, in the Hands of Our Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, with Directions to him to issue and deliver out such Passes to any of Our Subjects, not being Inhabitants of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar; provided the Person or Persons applying for the same, do comply with and conform to the several Rules and Regulations now in Use, and required to be observed by such of Our other Subjects: And We do hereby order, That the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain, and the Commissioners of Our Revenue in Ireland, do cause to be carried into Execution such Parts of the said Order of Council of the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning Passes, as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, so far as the same remains now in Force, and of Our Orders aforesaid, made in Council, on the Twenty-eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and that they do direct their Officers in the several Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to demand of the Masters of all Merchant Ships, so soon as they shall return into Port from a Foreign Voyage, all Passes granted as aforesaid, which shall be in their Possession, to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older Date than the Periods hereinbefore severally and respectively mentioned for the Return of the Passes of the present Form, then such Passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such Passes, according to the true Intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the Name of every such Master, and of the Ship or Vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, to the End that Directions may be given for putting the Bond, entered into on the granting any such Pass, in Suit: And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our Islands, Colonies, or Plantations, Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving Subjects whom it may concern; are hereby respectively required and commanded to yield due Obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the Orders, Instructions, Regulations, and Directions before mentioned, on Pain of Our High Displeasure.

The internal Prosperity of the Country has realised Our most sanguine Hopes. We have experienced the Bounty of Divine Providence in the Produce of an abundant Harvest; the State of the Manufactures, Commerce, and Revenue of My United Kingdom is flourishing beyond Example; and the Loyalty and Attachment which are manifested to My Person and Government afford the strongest Indications of the just Sense that is entertained of the numerous Blessings enjoyed under the Protection of Our happy Constitution.

In My Intercourse with Foreign Powers I have been actuated by a sincere Disposition for the Maintenance of Peace; it is nevertheless impossible for Me to be Sight of that established and wise System of Policy by which the Interests of other States are connected with Our own; and I cannot, therefore, be indifferent to any material Change in their relative Condition and Strength.—My Conduct will be invariably regulated by a due Consideration of the actual Situation of Europe, and by a watchful Solitude for the permanent Welfare of My People.—You will, I am persuaded, agree with Me in thinking that it is incumbent upon Us to adopt those Means of Security which are best calculated to afford the Prospect of preserving to My Subjects the Blessings of Peace.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the Estimates for the ensuing Year to be laid before you; and I rely on your Zeal and Liberality in providing for the various Branches of the Public Service, which, it is a great Satisfaction to Me to think, may be fully accomplished without any considerable Addition to the Burthens of My People.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I contemplate, with the utmost Satisfaction, the great and increasing Benefits produced by that important Measure which has united the Interests and consolidated the Resources of Great Britain and Ireland. The Improvement and Extension of these Advantages will be Objects of your unremitting Care and Attention. The Trade and Commerce of My Subjects, so essential to the Support of Public Credit, and of Our Maritime Strength, will, I am persuaded, receive from you every possible Encouragement; and you will readily lend your Assistance in affording to mercantile Transactions in every Part of My United Kingdom, all the Facility and Accommodation that may be consistent with the Security of the Public Revenue.

To uphold the Honor of the Country, to encourage its Industry, to improve its Resources, and to maintain the true Principles of the Constitution in Church and State, are the great and leading Duties which you are called upon to discharge. In the Performance of them, you may be assured of My uniform and cordial Support; it being My most earnest Wish to cultivate a perfect Harmony and Confidence between Me and My Parliament, and to promote to the utmost the Welfare of My faithful Subjects, whose Interests and Happiness I shall ever consider as inseparable from My own.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

Requiring Passes, formerly granted to Ships and Vessels trading in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, to be returned into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and other Passes of different Forms to be issued.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Thirty-first Day of December, in the Twenty-fourth Year of Our Reign, We did charge and command all Our loving Subjects who then were, or should be, possessed of any Passes for Ships and Vessels belonging to Our Subjects trading to Portugal, the Canaries, Guinea, the Indies, into the Mediterranean, or elsewhere, in the Way of the Cruisers belonging to the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with New Passes,) that they should, before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, return the same, and furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, in such Manner as by the said recited Proclamation was directed: And whereas it hath been humbly represented unto Us, that there is the greatest Reason to believe, that many of Our Passes may, either by Accident or undue Means, have fallen into the Hands of Foreigners, who by Colour of such Passes may carry on their Trade; We, taking the Premises into Our Royal Consideration, and judging it necessary to put a speedy Stop to all such indirect Practices, which do not only tend to the Prejudice of Our Trading Subjects, but may occasion a Misunderstanding between Us and the Governments on the Coast of Barbary, for preventing thereof, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby declare, That the Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force for all Vessels sailing from the Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, during the present Year, in order to give sufficient Time to Our Trade to be furnished with Passes of the New Form; and that after the Expiration of that Time, no Passes but those of the New Form shall be considered as valid, except in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, where they cannot be timely furnished with New Passes: And we do hereby further declare, That in the Case of Vessels returning from Foreign Voyages, Passes of the present Form shall continue in Force during the Terms hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) For Vessels returning from the Ports to the Northward of the Straights of Gibraltar, or from the Ports within the Mediterranean, in the West Indies, or in North America, to the Thirty-first of March next; For Vessels returning from the Western Coasts of Africa, to the Thirtieth of June next; For Vessels returning from the East Indies, and all other distant Parts, to the Thirtieth of June One thousand eight hundred and four; and for Vessels which may sail from the Ports of Our United Kingdom previous to the Thirty-first of December next, for a further Time of Two Months beyond the Periods above-mentioned, according to their respective Voyages: And We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects, who are or shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, on or before the Expiration of the Periods hereinbefore mentioned respectively return the same into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of Our Customs at the Out-Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of Our Foreign Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of the New Form, under the Hands and Seals of Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, according to the Treaties subsisting between Us and the said Governments on the Coast of Barbary, and the Regulations made by Our Royal Predecessor King George the First, by Order in His Privy Council, on the Fourteenth Day of June, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, so far as the same remain unaltered by the Regulations made by Us by Our Orders in Council, bearing Date respectively on the Twenty-eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and on the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three, and according to the further Regulations then there made, and Our Instructions given to Our said Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland, touching the same: And whereas many Ships and Vessels belonging to Our loving Subjects, continue several Years trading from Port to Port in the Mediterranean, without returning Home, whereby they cannot so conveniently procure their Passes to be exchanged; We do hereby, for the Ease of Our Trading Subjects, publish and declare Our Pleasure, That upon the Application of any Owner of any Ship or Vessel, or other substantial Merchant, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, and Oath made by him of the Property of such Ship or Vessel, and that Three-fourths of the Company are Our Subjects, according to an Act made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of Our Royal Predecessor King Charles the Second, intituled, "An Act for encouraging" "and increasing of Shipping and Navigation," or such other Proportion as may be authorized by Act of Parliament, and upon entering into a Bond for the Return of such Pass at the End of Three Years, or of the Voyage, if that shall sooner determine, it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively empowered to make out a New Pass for such Ship or Vessel, and send the same to such of Our Consuls in the Mediterranean as the said Owner or Merchant shall desire, with Direction to such Consul, that, upon Application to him from the Master of the Ship, for which the Pass is made out, and surrendering up his Old Pass, and entering into Bond for the Return of such New Pass, he shall deliver out the said New Pass to such Master, and transmit the Old one, with the Bond, to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in order more effectually to hinder, for the future, any Abuses that may be attempted by Foreigners relating to the New Passes to be issued as aforesaid; We do hereby further declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That all such New Passes, to be hereafter issued for any Ships and Vessels whatsoever, belonging to any of Our Subjects, inhabiting the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, shall be made out in a peculiar Form, different from the Form of the New Passes, to be issued for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions; and that such New Passes shall be lodged with the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief for the Time being, of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and issued out only by him, according to the Regulations made by Our said Royal Predecessor King George the First, and Ourself in Council, as aforesaid: And the said Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, is hereby charged and required, not to issue or deliver out any such Passes to any Persons whatsoever, other than such as are really Our Subjects, inhabiting in the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, and strictly to conform themselves to the Regulations and Instructions made and given as aforesaid: But in regard it sometimes happens, that Ships, belonging to Our Subjects of other Parts of Our Dominions, call in at Gibraltar without Passes, and have Occasion to be furnished therewith; We do, for the further Convenience of Trade, hereby publish and declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That it shall and may be lawful for Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, and they are respectively hereby empowered, to lodge Mediterranean Passes, of the same Form with the New Passes, for Ships and Vessels belonging to any other Part of Our Dominions, in the Hands of Our Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or Commander in Chief of the Town and Garrison of Gibraltar, with Directions to him to issue and deliver out such Passes to any of Our Subjects, not being Inhabitants of the said Town and Garrison of Gibraltar; provided the Person or Persons applying for the same, do comply with and conform to the several Rules and Regulations now in Use, and required to be observed by such of Our other Subjects: And We do hereby order, That the Commissioners of Our Customs in Great Britain, and the Commissioners of Our Revenue in Ireland, do cause to be carried into Execution in the Parts of the said Order or Council of the Fourteenth Day of June One thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, concerning Passes, as relate to themselves, and the proper Officers under them, as far as the same remains now in Force, and of Our Orders aforesaid, made in Council, on the Twenty-eighth Day of August One thousand seven hundred and twenty-six, and on the Thirtieth Day of December One thousand seven hundred and eighty-three; and that they do direct their Officers in the several Ports of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to demand of the Masters of all Merchant Ships, so soon as they shall return into Port from a Foreign Voyage, all Passes granted as aforesaid, which shall be in their Possession, to be produced to the said respective Officers of Our Customs; and if the same shall appear to be of an older Date than the Period, herebefore severally and respectively mentioned for the Return of the Passes of the present Form, then such Passes shall be delivered up to the said respective Officers of Our Customs, and be by them returned to the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain: And in case the Master of any such Ship or Vessel shall refuse to produce or deliver up such Passes, according to the true Intent of Our said Order, then the said Officer shall certify the Name of every such Master, and of the Ship or Vessel, to Our Commissioners for executing the Office of High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or to Our High Admiral of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for the Time being, to the End that Directions may be given for putting the Bond, enter into on the granting any such Pass, in Suit: And all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, and Commanders in Chief of any of Our Islands, Colonies, or Plantations, Consuls residing in Foreign Parts, and all other Our Officers and Ministers whatsoever, and all other Our loving Subjects whom it may concern, are hereby respectively required and commanded to yield due Obedience unto, and strictly to observe all the Orders, Instructions, Regulations, and Directions before mentioned, on Pain of Our High Displeasure.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the Third Day of November One thousand eight hundred and two, and in the Forty-third Year of Our Reign.

LORD DUNCAN'S VICTORY.

At a Meeting of the Committee appointed to manage the Subscription raised for the Benefit of the Wounded, and the Families of those who were Killed, in the ever-memorable Action of the 11th of October 1797,

CALVERLEY BEWICKE, Esq; in the Chair:

The Committee having made an Arrangement with the Marine-Society, in Bishopgate-Street, London, for the Payment of certain Annuities granted by this Committee to the Sufferers in the Action of the 11th of October 1797, for One Year, up to the 11th of October 1802, and also for the Payment of Avoirs, and for the future Management of the same, under certain Regulations:

Resolved,

That Circular Letters be transmitted to those to whom Annuities have been already granted, containing the Form of Certificates required, of the Life, Age, and Situation, of the Parties interested, and of the Number of their Families, before they can be entitled to receive their respective Annuities due on the 11th of October 1802; and, in case of Deaths, then their Widows or Children to find Certificates agreeably to the Forms required.

To prevent unnecessary Applications to Mr. Newby, the Secretary of the Marine-Society, none need apply but those who have been in the Habit of receiving Annuities, (unless in case of Deaths,) then the Widows or Children of such deceased Annuitants will be entitled to Relief, under certain Certificates and Regulations.

The Committee, with peculiar Pleasure, beg to state, that out of a Fund, which the Public have with so much Liberality raised, amounting, with Interest and Dividends, to 52,691. 10s. 10d. they have been enabled, by the Information and Assistance of the Officers in the Navy, and of the Magistrates, Gentry, and Clergy of the United Kingdom, and of Lloyd's Coffee-House, October 29, 1802, foreign Countries, to reduce the Number of Cafes unclaimed, and entitled to Relief, to TWENTY-FIVE out of ONE THOUSAND AND FORTY Cafes, reported to have been killed or wounded in this memorable Action.

The Committee, for the Honor of this Country, and to discharge the Trust reposed in them, being desirous to find out the TWENTY-FIVE Cafes yet unknown, have herewith annexed a List of such Persons as are yet entitled to Relief. They request that the Parties interested, or, in case of Death, their Families, Relatives, next of Kin, or those who have been dependant upon them for Support or Assistance, will send the Particulars of their Claims and Connections to Mr. White, Lloyd's Coffee-House, London; the same to be attested by some respectable Inhabitant and Housekeeper of the Place where the Applicants reside, and to be further countersigned by the Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish.

Foreigners will be entitled to Relief equally with British Subjects; and, if Certificates and Inquiries prove satisfactory Remittances will be made to the proper Claimants free of all Trouble and Expence.

If Gratuities are not satisfactorily claimed within Twelve Months, the Committee are empowered, by a Resolution of a General Meeting of the Subscribers, to appropriate the same as follows:

All Sums voted to Foreigners, and unclaimed, to be paid to the Consuls, Ministers, Deacons, or Heads of Churches, in London, of the Nation to whom the Parties belonged, for the Benefit of such sick or distressed Seamen of their Nation as may frequent this Port in Times of Peace; and the Gratuities voted to British Subjects and others, whose suppoled Country cannot be ascertained, to be given to charitable institutions connected with the Commerce and Navy of this Country.
